1.

[redacted] a PS unit, commanded by a lieutenant, was stationed in Oldrichov (N 50/P 46). From 100 to 120 troops armed with submachine guns and two hand grenades each were repeatedly observed falling in. [redacted] a total of 150 to 200 men were stationed in Oldrichov. Patrols of six men were repeatedly seen on roads in this area. Four dogs, 1 sedan, 1 truck and 3 motorcycles were observed with the PS unit in Oldrichov. On 27 July, 4 saddle horses arrived and were stabled in the town. At the beginning of the summer of 1951, wooden bunkers, about 3 x 4 meters large and about 1.20 meters under ground were constructed in the area of Oldrichov and Palic (N 51/P 36). They were camouflaged with earth and bushes. In daytime, the bunkers were occupied by three men each, while 5 or 6 men patrolled from bunker to bunker. *

2.

Another PS unit was stationed in Mytina (Alt-Albenreuth - N 51/P 36). One lieutenant, 1 senior lieutenant, about 100 PS personnel with green epaulets and 50 to 100 soldiers with red epaulets were seen there. Patrols wore green and red epaulets. Three dogs, several saddle horses and motor vehicles were also seen with the troops at Mytina. **

3.

Other PS quarters were on Mt. Dylen (Tillenbergl, about 3 km southeast of Oldrichov.

4.

In early August 1951, army trucks with construction material arrived in Palic. During a KSC meeting on the same day, it was announced that Palic would become a military post and that stables for horses were required. It was rumored that the residents of Palic would be evacuated and that a troop kitchen would be established in the young People's building. ***

[redacted] A company of the PS battalion in Dolni Zabor was repeatedly reported to be stationed in Oldrichov. [redacted] The relatively high strength probably indicates that the PS recruits inducted in July had already arrived.

Comment. A company of the PS battalion in the building of the former revenue office 1 km south of the railroad station in Cheb is stationed in Mytina. It is noteworthy that army soldiers, i.e., soldiers with red epaulets, should be assigned to border duty.

Comment. Low wooden barracks buildings were constructed at Mt. Dyren in April 1951. A company of the PS battalion in Dolni Zandov was reported to be stationed there. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ No military unit is carried in Palic, which is also located in the Dolni Zandov area.
